

CAP Search & Rescue and Forest Fire Air Attack Review

Mr. John Watt, Commander of CAP Composite Squadron 126, based at the Redding Municipal airport will brief the attendees on current search and rescue procedures, present an overview of the national activities (with regards to Search and Rescue) of the CAP; and as a former Air Attack Observer/Coordinator he will advise the attendee's in procedures that they may want to utilize when operating in and around air attack operations.

Directions: Flying: Park just NW of Hillside FBO in transient ... then walk east to FBO lobby, then south into hangar. Driving: Park either North or South of the FBO, then walk through pedestrian gate to lobby, then south into the hangar.

A message from the National FAASTeam Manager

Invite a fellow pilot to the next WINGS Safety Seminar in your area.

Sign up for the FAA's safety services at www.FAASafety.gov!

Event Details

Sat, Dec 14, 2013 - 10:00 am

Hillside Aviation

2600 Gold Street

Hillside FBO, Hangar

Redding, CA 96001

Contact: WILLIAM V. HILL

(530) 410-9525

ATPBill@gmail.com

Select #: WP2550013

Lead Representative WILLIAM V. HILL

The FAA Safety Team (FAASTeam) is committed to providing equal access to this meeting/event for all participants. If you need alternative formats or services because of a disability, please communicate your request as soon as possible with the person in the "Contact Information" area of the meeting/event notice. Note that two weeks is usually required to arrange services.